See through my window
The lady cries
Down by the river
The seagull flies
I climb the hill in solitude
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow
You watch the sky and you wait for dawn
You wait forever
It never comes
And then you see
The sun's bright glow
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow

The horns of the cars
In the morning rush
You feel so numb
You can't feel much
Courting the hours by the light of time
You're looking through the thin white line
Sooner or later
We fly away
And you remember
It's another day
I climb the hill
Where the new wind blows
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow
Oh-oh
Time drags so slow
