Well your heart is broken and your legs are weak
you feel so tired that you just cant speak monday tuesday you dont know you dont even care you just let it go oh no.
Well you're an optimistik, pessimistik, nihilistik fook you're running around you're breaking all those rules one day two days three days four you havent been to sleep and you dont eat no more no no..
Well you look into the mirror and you see your face your eyes are wild your hairs all over the place is it monday tuesday you dont know you dont even care you just let it flow oh no.

and your legs are weak
one day two days three days four
and you dont eat no more no no it feels so good just like it should
