We are the ones
That walk this line,
We know what we
Have choosen
You know that we Can't look back now

She lays into the light
And Keeps her body small
Beneath this sky is where we rest
No one can see us now.

There are these things
That hold us back,
God only knows
What We Do.

She lays into the light
And keeps her body small
Beneath this sky is where we rest
No one can see us now.

We can't look back,
We can't look back now.
