I have been getting by on all the things I wanna do with you

When I get home

You know those other birds

They were Never meant to be for me

When I get home

When I get home

Drop what you're doing let it roll before I call

When I get home

Tell me stories of a nation soon to fall

I ran out on old infidelity

You will believe

When I get home

There are those day when I

I feel as empty as a cup

Time's tough

When I am gone

It gets so hard for me to try and find a good way down

When I'm out of town

But when I get home

Drop what you're doing let it roll before I call

When I get home

Change into nothing take the pictures off your wall

I ran out on old infidelity

You will believe

When I get home

I have been getting by on all the things I wanna do with
you

When I get home

You know those other birds

They were Never meant to be for me

When I get home

When I get home

Drop what you're doing let it roll before I call

When I get home

Tell me stories of a nation soon to fall

I ran out on old infidelity

You will believe
When I get home
When I get home
