Dark Depth

Dark bottom of the unknown
Thought vibrations - flames of my mind
As matter falls into the depth
Through the unexisting hole

Misteries confound
Through the infinite doors
Without dimensions

The place where nothing has it's meaning
Endless ages crop into one minute

The Sun, once bringer of life
Became monstrous throat
Which leads into dimensions
For human mind unknown

Space is no longer stabile
Where the light stop to exist
Cloaked by internal darkness
Vortex of beyond - and before

Misteries confound
Through the infinite doors
Without dimensions

The place where nothing has it's meaning
Endless ages crop into one minute
