The Sins Of Mankind

Sins of mankind - cannot be forgiven
Sins of mankind - are imprinted in our past

This world of lies and hate
Is the place that we creates
Our history is written
In our blood

We can only blame ourselves
For the emptines we have inside
Soon we'll regret
And pray for forgiveness

Based upon the pain and religious wars
But it's too late there's no turning back

Sins of mankind - cannot be forgiven
Sins of mankind - are imprinted in our past

This world is built on lies
This world is full of hate

True values are all destroyed
Our suffering has just begun

For the things that mankind done
We will suffer endlessly
Time has come to pay the price
For destructive way of life

Forget all the dreams
And salvation from the god
The truth we cannot hide
Forget illusions of the afterlife

Based upon the pain and religious wars
Now it's too late there's no turning back
