Have you ever been there
In this life time
Have you ever dreamed of
In the night time
Have you ever been blinded
In the day time
Because there's nothing to hide
Cause it's all in your mind

I've watched the ashes
Fall onto the ground
Into my lungs
Which I have found
My life was cut short
In this painfull life
Help me kill away the pain
Just hand me that fucking knife

No more reason to live
One more reason to die
I hope you know
That it wasn't mine.
