Within your heart, a hero waits to emerge
The memory of the dream that came to me last night Fills me up with hope that I can go on.)

that is irresistibly closing in on me)

(You can now dream without fear
You have to try, or an endless anguish will haunt you to the end of time.)

(Do you cry are you lonely?
I shed my tears as I face the fight.
Turn away from your fears and become my dream.)
