"What's Done Is Done"

What's done is done no more regrets I shouldn't worry
Now that you've gone I must forget stop feeling sorry
Don't want to live my life without you
I want to give my love to no one but you

Where did you run, I can't accept- did you deceive me
I know it's wrong the way I act but do believe me
Don't want to live my life alone without you
I want to give my love to no one but you

What's done is done, what's done is done

Now my friends are telling me
You played you trick and told only lies
But I don't need their sympathy
And I can do without their advice
They say she's done you wrong
You've got to understand that's what's done is done
