-Unstable and curiously scarred
I'm frightened but so erotically charged
You took my dignity, and I don't want it back
You punch me in the face, and then I just laugh
I've never seen you during the day
Didn't ask for this but I like it this way
Laugh at me for acting like a man
Remind you that you ain't worth a damn
You took my money and you made me go home
I stole you keys, then I smashed your phone

I don't care about your lightness of being
It's more fun wallowing in negativity
Hit me cause it's all I understand
And I'll bite your effeminate manicured hand
You've got your cross, and I brought some nails
Indulge me in a game of shower in jail
I don't care about your lightness of being
It's more fun wallowing in negativity
