I am I said I'm not
I beat a lonely drum a lot
And I'm slipping back
Slipping back again
I don't like what I see
And dependency's no mystery
So, I'm going back
Going back again
And if you find what you want
Order the same for me
And if you find what you want
With no surprise, no mystery
Yes, I know
It's where I'm comfortable
Every day's the same
Getting up and going insane
Cause I'm slipping back

Slipping back again
And if you find what you want
Order the same for me
And if you find what you want
Make it the same for me
And if you find what you want
With no surprise, no mystery
Yes, I know
It's where I'm comfortable
Oh yes I know you're fearless
In my eyes
While I hide in my disguise
Oh, yes I know
It's where I'm comfortable
