"Think Twice"

You are leaving today oh, I wish you could stay but I guess you have to pay cause you didn't think twice now you have to pay the price cause you couldn't find the way... now you walk all alone and you're so far from home so I look you in the eye and I feel as if I could cry

Chorus:

You never thought twice before you'd make your move now you're stuck in a groove you can't find your way out so you begin to shout...help me find a way I never thought I'd have to pay now I will say I guess I will have to pay the price because I couldn't find the way

Now I come back with nothing more than I left with now I don't have to pay cause I found the way now I can say

Chorus:

I do think twice before I make a move now I'm not in a groove and I know the way out so I don't have to shout
