

Trace Adkins "American Man"

Visit "American Man" on MotoLyrics.com

He keeps a cup wedged 'tween the dash and the windshield

Wore out spot where his hand lays on the Wheel

Fourteen years of back and forth

Of work and church and honeys do's

He's a hardhat hammer swingin' won't hear him whine

Kick some butt, wrap it up, crack a beer high five

God fearing son of pride and strength

That's exactly what he has turned into

He'll fight tooth and nail for his family

Give the shirt right off his back for a friend in need

Chorus:

So let's all raise a glass to the guy who never asked

Any praise for a job well done

All the blood, sweat and tears standing tall no fear

He's the backbone of this land

It's long overdue

Here's to the American Man

Flies the stars and stripes on a pole in the front yard

Picture of his wife and kids as a bookmark

To keep his place inside the good book

The words he believes and lives by

He's gonna make mistakes like anyone

But he's gonna make it right 'fore the day is done

(Repeat Chorus)

So let's all raise a glass to the guy who never asked

Any praise he just gave

All the blood, sweat and tears

He stood

tall with no fear

(Repeat Chorus)

This song's for you
The American Man
The American Man

Visit Trace Adkins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.