I cant take back, the things i said, to you in the past.
Or make you forget, the reasons why, we didnt last.
Im haunted by what might of been, still i cant change who i was back then

(chours)

But if i could hold you now, you'd see ive turned myself
around,
and now im someone you'd be proud to love.
I'de do all the right things, make promises that ide
keep It'd hurt too much to let you down
and in my arms there'd be no room for doubt,
if I could hold you now

Its funny how, this empty room, makes it all to clear
When I let you leave, a part of me, just dissapeared
But if ide known then what ive come to know, theres no way i could of let you go

(chorus)

But if I could hold you now you'd see ive turned myself
around,
and now im someone you'd be proud to love.
Ide do all the right things, make promises that I'de
keep It'd hurt to much to let you down
and in my arms, there'd be no room for doubt
If I could hold you now

But if i'de known now what ive come to know, there'd be no way i could of let you go

(chorus)

If I could hold you now
repeat 3x
