I wouldn't own a suit, much less a tie
Sunday would still be a part of Friday night
And Jesus wouldn't be a friend of mine
If I could say no to a woman

I never would've chased that crazy dream
Those kinda odds would've seemed too long for me
I'da had to settle for plan b
If I could say no to a woman

She saw me better than I thought I was
She offered her heart and all her love
And I don't know where I'd be today
If I could say no to a woman

I bet I wouldn't live in a little suburb house
I probably wouldn't be somebody's daddy now
And they wouldn't be all I think about
If I could say no to a woman

She saw me better than I thought I was
She offered her heart and all her love
And I don't know where I'd be today
If I could say no to a woman

Yeah she saw me better than I thought I was
And all she wanted was all my love

She saw me better than I thought I was
She offered her heart and all her love
And I don't know where I'd be today
Yeah, to tell the truth
She makes it hard to say
No to a woman
I can't say no to that woman
I can't say no
To that woman
