Once... In a lifetime
You'll open up your heart.
Baby once in your lifetime
You'll swear you'll never be apart
You think your loves on solid ground
Then out of the blue it all
Comes tumbling down

Chorus
Who's gonna hold me tonight
When I'm feeling Lonely
Who's gonna show me the light
Cuz i need to know
With all the things we got
How does love just stop
Tell me
Sombody help me Understand

Had my picture
In your locket
What will you do with it now
All our friends
And all our memories
Tell me how
We sort them out
What's yours is yours
What's mine is mine
Is that all that's left
After all this time

Chorus

Help me understand
Why im not a part of your plan and you dont need me anymore
Help me understand
Why i still wanna be where you are
Even though I know in my heart
That you dont love me anymore
Chorus
