I thought you'd never ask
I thought I'd be left on the inside
I was okay doing fine
Killing time here on my own
Now that I'm outside living life on the edge I feel complete
Where I never felt so good before

And oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you
Oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you

Oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you
Oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you

I thought you'd never hear my voice
I'm drowning in this silence
Here comes that second chance
Don't let it get away
I get a rush I get too much
Yeah I'm here on the outside

Where I never felt so good before

And oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
And oh...

And oh what I wouldn't give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you
Give for a piece of you

Don't let them stop you [x2]
