Are you able to shut your mouth
Long enough to listen?
Cause if you're going to be mad at me
You better have good reason yeah

[Pre-Chorus]
C'mon [x4] take a cheap shot
You know you wanna
C'mon [x4]
I can't blame you

[Chorus:]
I know you feel betrayed
I let you down that day
Everything I see
Is just another reminder of you
You're not the only one
Who's drowning in this pain

This was no conspiracy
No hidden agenda
Just the sad reality
That the truth hurts

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]
Open up your mind to the possibility
That what we said to you came out of honesty
Accept the fact that there was no conspiracy
Agree to disagree so we can live peacefully
