And the door creaks open
And you sneak into my room
Careful not to wake,
The ones who can't see through you
And my screams are silenced
By the pillow that you hold
Over me, so no one else will know

[Pre-Chorus:]
No one believes me, no one
When I say that I'm the victim

[Chorus:]
I'm not the one who's guilty
I'm not the one who lies
I am the one who suffers
The one who's dead inside

And no one believes me
That my innocence you stole
Love turns to hate,
And quickly I'm disowned
Can you see me breaking
From the secrets that you hold
Over me, so no one else will know

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]
Can you see me breaking?

[Chorus]
