I've been lying to myself for so long
Always waiting for the perfect time
To sever ties with a safe life and risk
Everything on a feeling inside
I've been waiting for the right time to jump
Never living my life for me
Always doing what is expected
I wanna choose my destiny

[Pre-Chorus:]

You know that you want it but do you need it
Bad enough to try are you willing to

[Chorus:]

Fall on your face (are you ready to roll)
If you bite the bullet?
Risk it all just to taste (are you ready to roll)
Will you bite the bullet this time?

I've been living in the dark for so long
Always having to sacrifice
Everything that fuels my passion
Anything that gives me life
I've been waiting for the right time to jump
Never living my life for me
Always doing what is expected
I wanna choose my destiny

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Bridge:]

Are you ready to roll [x3]
With the punches?
