A painted picture there
Wet ink runs down her face
Silhouettes of laughter
Disguise the smile she wears
Heading down that dark road
To find her name
The canvas that she was before
Rags frayed and torn
Jesus, He Loves
Magazines and dreams
Images of things what wanted
Now they all were flaunted
Before her to tease
Heading down that dark road
To find her name
Images of shattered souls
Lifeless on the floor
Jesus, He Loves
No sweeter Name, no sweeter Name
Heading down that dark road
To find her name
Would you believe the life she found in mine would be her own
Jesus, He Loves
Jesus, heal us
No sweeter name in heaven
No sweeter name on earth
