We feel the ground shaking beneath your feet
And homes and hearts are breaking as far as the eye can see
And you're desperately searching, just praying you find your family
And it all seems so hopeless, and you wanna give in

Chorus

But help is on the way, help is on the way
So hold on to your hope, hold on to your faith
'Cause help is on the way

A child without a mother, one more without a home
Just clinging to each other,
'cause they know they ain't got nowhere else to go
And it's hard not to feel despair in this living nightmare

Chorus

And these images haunt me
They won't leave me alone, no
The broken road, the heavy load so many miles to go

Chorus

ad lib to end!
