This town has been closed for months now
But now they're opening everything I think the summer is finally here
Everyone had their long sleep
Now they're crawling out to feel the warming summer breeze

But it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
But it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over

There's something about this weather
That makes the people jump around They wouldn't normally come out
It looks like we're going nowhere 'Cos we don't know where we've been or what the future might bring

But it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
But it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over

And everybody knew that this day was gonna come We wouldn't face the truth that our numbered days are done
We feel it in the air; the summer of our lives is gonna end tonight
But I know we're back at the end of May

'Cos it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
But it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
And it won't stay the same when the weather is cold

And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
No it won't stay the same when the weather is cold
And it feels like there's nothing left when the summer
is over
The summer is over
