It's only human to want
To inhabit every feeling you've got
And more often than not
Let's take it to the nth degree

Here he goes
Gimmie ten bucks and a head start
Here's where he goes
The puzzle's pullin' apart

And here's the scene
You're yellin' calmly out the street
Are we family or what?

From happy-go-lucky
To surly-go-crazy the lot
And more often than not
Admission to the battles is free

Here he goes
Gimmie ten bucks and a head start
Here's where he goes
Pullin' the puzzle apart

And here's the scene
Where you whisper down the crookedest street
Are we family or what?

Are we family when it's only if not when Sisters and brothers, wolf, wolf lover
And the boy who stamped too many ants?
Are we family?

It's only human to want
To inherit every feeling you've got
And like it or not
Let's take it to the nth degree

Here we go
Give us ten bucks and a head start
Here's where we go
The puzzle's pullin' apart

And here's the scene
Your horse is going the wrong way up the street
Are we family or what?

Are we family, when its not if but when Taking care of each other, one bullet to another
When it's all if a song can't save us then nothing can?
Are we family or what?
(Are we family [Incomprehensible])

Are we family or what?
(To one another, the lost to the recovered?
[Incomprehensible])
Are we family or what?
(The tribal jury to the Pakistani teen?)

Are we family or what?
(Ill-starred evenings to champion mystique)
Are we family or what?
(Sick as a writer writing to be lighter than the uncanny,
are we family?)
When the invasion of Antarctica's complete are we family?
