This ain't a threat but I think I better warn ya
Gonna fall in love if you go to California
I did and this is how I know

By the beach, north of San Jose
Met the right girl and it sounds cliché
But we decided not to take it slow

I said, "Why wait, you're my soul mate"
Took her by the hand in the Golden State
"Now that you're mine, things are gonna be fine"

First came love then a baby carriage
Hardly knew the people at my own damn marriage
But an open bar can open your mind

You save my life with every word you say
You shine your light for me to find my way
Just hold me tight and cross your heart to stay

Here with me
Born to be
Every part of you in Half Moon Bay

Up in Tiburon where the girls are warm
We stay inside while the rain clouds form, yeah
Thank God for rainy days like these

And just when the time has come to retire
The baby starts crying so we dance by the fire
Always does the trick, you better believe

You save my life with every word you say
You shine your light for me to find my way
Just hold me tight and cross your heart to stay

Here with me
Born to be
Every part of you

Why not keep it nice and steady?
We don't know until the stars are ready

Why say 'No' when 'Yes' feels right
You just gotta go with what you feel like, oh

This ain't a threat but I think I better warn ya
Gonna fall in love if you go to California
I did and this is how I know

You save my life with every word you say
You shine your light for me to find the way
Just hold me tight and cross your heart to stay

Here with me
Born to be
Every part of you

You save my life with every word you say
You shine your light so I can find my way
Just hold on tight and cross your heart to stay

Here with me
Born to be
Every part of you in half moon bay
