you lied
but how could i expect anything more of such an elementary mind?
i offered you something so crucial and you spit it back out when i turned my head the solution is basic aren't you smart enough to know how much this is going to hurt?
now look at your friends
they are crying
they are crying for you don't erach out
they don't want what you have
i'm sorry
i still love you
but i don't want what makes you so sick what makes you sick?
