Yeah, yeah, yeah

(Hook)

One time for these dope ass beats (yeah)
Two hoes and it's only one me (yeah)
Three blunts full of that OG, nigga
I'm in the game, better get to know me (yeah)

(Verse 1)

I'm a simple artist, I don't really need much
Just a lot of hard beats and a couple rolled blunts
And I'm good to go, not thinking 'bout awards shows
Cause I don't need a trophy to confirm what I know
Oh, I'm the from the go but I got a little accent
Shawty wanna go and I'm all about that action
It's hydro, if you ain't hittin then you passing
But it might pass you if you ain't matching
Now that's it, now watch me while I break it down
I twist up, flame up, feeling great now
I done hit rock bottom but I never stay down
Bet that I'ma rise up like the people's eyebrow
Yeah, and I don't really need help
But a send a paramedic cause my beat is losing health
I do it for the love but I'm going for the belt
And I don't fear a damn thing but my damn self, so

(Hook)

One time for these dope ass beats (yeah)
Two hoes and it's only one me (yeah)
Three blunts full of that OG, nigga
I'm in the game, better get to know me (yeah)
(Repeat once)

(Verse 2)

It's Mr. hit it in a plane or a blunt or a bowl
Or a bong or whatever that she wants
I tell her take a hit and I be damned if she won't
They say I'm 'bout to make it, I be damn if I don't Ay, I'm feeling good reminiscent of my prom night
Blunts but no liquor though, nope, tonight is wine night
Drop her off if I say something and she don't respond

right
Asshole, love it though, nice when the time's right
Ruthless on these records, jo I make it look easy
Flow so sick it make a nigga feel queasy
Flyer than a laminated 4 by 6
That's double sided uv coated, what you know 'bout this
Ay I ain't sayin I'm the best but bitch I know I got it
If that nigga say the opposite that nigga outta pocket
I'm raw like a dummy left the condom in his wallet
So one time for these dope records that I'm droppin, ay
