Aye, Aye, Aye, Yeah
Bounce, Bounce, Bounce, Aye
Yea
Check me out, look, ok

First things first, I'ma let u know the name
It's Yung TrakBoss, I'm the hottest in the game
Little nigga but your girl will not say the same Cause she know she get the business every time your boy stain
Everyday I wasn't able but I never touched cane
My only vice? Putting cigarillos to the flame
I got rhythm flowing all in my veins
For you it ain't the same, you just want a little fame
You think I'm doing music for the sake of groupie hoes, jo?
Fuck the after party, I'ma hit the studio like
I'm on my job, you calling in sick
And a hungry nigga like myself would love to work the shift
It's designed so that what you put in it is what you get
But you aint gotta do shit cause I been had this
Make a beat, hit the booth, such a beautiful gift
Ay homie, this is the life, it don't get better than this

Yeah I'm living it up
Lead foot to the floor got the needle on the meter past 80
You see me?
I'm living it up
King Kong in the trunk got the 808s hitting real heavy,
boy
You hear me?
Yeah I'm living it up
Out in Cali getting zooted off the kush, yeah twist it in a
Vega
You tweaking
I'm living it up
Just left the studio with another hit, what it do haters?
Yeah I'm living it up

Ninth grade, on the stage, bright lights in my eye

Left hand on my nuts, right hand on the mic
Swag turned on, got the level on high
Had the whole student body with their hands in the sky like
This is what I call audio art
Everything I say is real talk coming from the heart
A few had doubts cause I didn't look the part Now if you looking for me you gon find me on the charts
I'm living it up, your girl giving it up
I slide in, slide out without giving a fuck
Baby tell me what you drinking and I'm pouring it up
You can think you hot stuff but we don't feel it enough
What, what, ay yo, tell me how my swag taste
Biting off the style, it's no wonder you in last place
I'm hot enough to turn liquid to it's gas state
You couldn't come close even on my bad day

Yeah I'm living it up
Lead foot to the floor got the needle on the meter past 80
You see me?
I'm living it up
King Kong in the trunk got the 808s hitting real heavy,
boy
You hear me?
Yeah I'm living it up
Out in Cali getting zooted off the kush, yeah twist it in a
Vega
You tweaking
I'm living it up
Just left the studio with another hit, what it do haters?
Yeah I'm living it up
