(Verse 1)

My phone on silent
You feel it rising
I know how you like it
You're getting more excited
And I can feel that body smiling
That love below is thriving, yeah
You say that you're arriving
My number you'll be dialing

(Hook)

That comeback
Girl, I got that comeback, yeah
That comeback
Guaranteed to make you comeback, yeah
That comeback
Girl, I got that comeback, yeah
That comeback
Make you want to come back, yeah, come back for more

(Verse 2)

You got the body of a Goddess, girl, you're looking like a model
A doobie of that finest and a bottle of Three Olives
Will have us in a freaky situation and now you caught up
'Cause when you're looking for that who you think that you're gon' call up
Me, Yung Trak, I go hard in that paint
Niggas talk a lot of shit but let me show you what I ain't I make that cookie cream, girl, you ain't gon' feel the same
When we practice every scene that you said you read in Zane
Yeah, shots of the drink turn into back shots
You'll be a like a crackpot, you'll keep running back, watch
That's cause I got something potent that you just can't deny

That type of D that you ain't getting, girl, I can provide Lips smiling back at me when I'm licking them That's that type of shit that'll have you tweeting "I'm missing him"
Kisses on your stomach, that alone'll make you want it You gon' love it 'til the point you want to recreate that moment

(Hook)

That comeback
Girl, I got that comeback, yeah
That comeback
Guaranteed to make you comeback, yeah
That comeback
Girl, I got that comeback, yeah
That comeback
Make you want to come back, yeah, come back for
