Walking among shadows
Lost in time
To the reign of astral bizarre
I Overcame all the borders
Where an end and start is unreal
Tiny cells - planet giants
They are all part of me

Past - past is the present of future
Darkness will whisper my end

Cold poisoned air fills my lungs
Is the black matter of space?
I can't speak, I can't listen
Myself is so far beyond me
What I see is my body
Slowly melting like ice

Ice, Ice to freeze all my innards
Creating an image of hell
Vanished in zero time distance

Electrons form an illusion
So I - I am a creature again!

Walking among shadows
To the reign of astral bizarre
I Overcame all the borders

Past - past is the present of future
Darkness will whisper my end
They are all part of my nothing

Electrons form an illusion
So I - I am a creature again

Tiny cells - planet giants
They are all part of a plan
Render to nothing and zero

Cold poisoned air fills my lungs

Is it the black matter of space?
In the end it's returning to zero
