(lyrics by Lorenzo Esposito e Paola Valandro)

Tick tock, watches from mirrors softly show me their dial trembling hours look like clowns it's a fair spinning around that's right, walking on tiptoe searching time after time what's the meaning, what's the meaning of life what's the meaning, what's the meaning of my life Clock holds a game

you want to play in vain:
he rises the stake
as he likes!
He beats the time introducing the fair troubles are pretty white doves fished from top-hat dancers and buskers repeat your own scene you're on a merry-go-round that stops when you'll take leave.

I've got to found how to defeat this perverse device in me but people around seems to enjoy this mad party where they're moving like toys ...
Uh uh uh ... don't forget the clock, no, don't forget the clock now he's a wizard with the glass ball and the future can be changed if he turns it upside down:
(can make the) winter and springtime
as he likes!

Let's clap hands while marching lined up and giving the smiles out, circus can't be stopped
is that the meaning, is that the meaning of life?
Come on follow the rhythm of the times dancing with this clock locked into my mind that's the meaning, that's the meaning of my life that's the meaning, that's the meaning of my life
