Father does all the work and he's scared to death Father runs to the table, said "what's going on"
Mother cries desperatly, our baby's gone!

Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street
Just imagine how scared they are
Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street.
Just imagine how scared they are

She wrote that it's positive that they're using her Singing by her face, while sexually abusing her
Just think she's out all alone on the streets
How did this girl survive
She got nothing

Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street
Just imagine how scared they are
Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street.
Just imagine how scared they are

Save me from this day now
Save me cause I don't know what to do
Save me from (?) a man
Save me from cause I don't wanna go

As she's on the move she off to Hollywood
She said she wanna be a star she heard the money's good
She gets off at the train station, the man is waiting there
I'll show you where the money is Girl just let down your hair
He's taking her on the streets of sunset boulevard

Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street
Just imagine how scared they are
Do you know where your children are?
Because it's not 12 o'clock, and they're somewhere out
on the street.
Just imagine how scared they are
