

Transit Studio

"Easy Like A Sunday Morning"

Visit "Easy Like A Sunday Morning" on MotoLyrics.com

So it is
This came to what we both expected
You've burned the bridge I used to walk when I needed protection
We could've been we again if you crossed it
Were you afraid of heights or flying?
With me there's no such thing as falling

Loving you would have been easy like a Sunday morning
If only you cared more for making up than makeup

Is this what your life was like before you met me
Letting anything with a pulse drill it inside of you
Does it make you feel damn pretty?
Cause we all chase the better side of everything and I chased it down to the brim
I tried to change all of your selfish ways
God it sucks knowing I failed at this

And loving you would have been easy like a Sunday
morning
If only you cared more for making up than makeup

We all chase the better side of everything and
I chased it down to the brim
I tried to change all of your selfish ways
God it sucks knowing I failed at this

And loving you would have been easy like a Sunday
morning
If only you cared more for making up than makeup

Loving you would have been easy like a Sunday
morning
If only you cared more for making up than makeup [3x]

Visit Transit Studio page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.