Sunset wake up
Waves break below my feet
And now I lay my head onto the sand
Hand-in-hand we're lying under the stars
Maybe these dreams aren't so far away
You can take me away

Count every star.
Maybe we'll meet again so far away from here
Maybe this time next year
And I wanna stay forever
But I know I should be on my way
Lets run away together
I know everything will be okay

Sunset wake up
Hold onto everything
If waking up means this is just a dream,
Then I'd rather sleep

Count every star
Maybe we'll meet again so far away from here
Maybe this time next year
And I wanna stay forever
But I know I should be on my way
Let's run away together
I know everything will be okay

And I wanna stay forever
But I know I should be on my way
Let's run away together
I know everything will be okay
I know everything will be okay
I know everything will be okay
