Don't fail to mention
We speak in foreign words and melody
Well set them straight in this city
Stand at attention that's right
So comprehensive of the words we write
So go on, it's hard here to get by

Hear every word weve said
Take time and I'll take mine instead
Straight up you'll steal our sights from red

Lets go back to Bayside
Throw worry to wayside
Share stories of our lives
When we were so excusable

We hope for change but everything just stays
Recycles back the same way
Stand at attention that's right
So discontent with day to day life
I know it's easy to deny

Hear every word weve said
Take time and I'll take mine instead
Straight up you'll steal our sights from red

Lets go back to Bayside
Throw worry to wayside
Share stories of our lives
When we were so excusable
Remember the hard times
Last summer at Surfside
Never perfect but we tried
When we were so excusable

So go on and make this call alone
Your second thoughts wont haunt you when you mean it
