Give it up she said.
Things will never be this way.
She said you're never gonna' change.
Well I'm not good enough
To stand out in the rain.
But it's not for me to say.

Why do you care?
Why do you feel this way?
No one minds..it's all the same.
You say that what's inside..
Is that what matters?
Fade away.
Looking back I see this has gone too far.
Just start contemplating other peoples problems.
Think of them.

Too much for you.
Too much, but it's for me.
It's not for anyone at all.
I've gone too far.
To let you go.
You've tried so hard.
To let this go.
