

Transition "Tune In"

Lets play for keeps now
As the city tries to sleep
I can't tell you what you need
You know if you walk away now
You can't turn it around
And it's clear that youve found your own way out

Is this what you wanted?

Tune in, we are writing this straight to you
You keep acting like you don't care
Tune in, so our friendship means this to you
You keep acting like you don't care

Lets play for keeps now
As the city's waking up
You can't tell me this is love
You say you cared for us when
I'm afraid it's the end
And it's clear that youve found your own way
