I thought I saw you, out on the avenue
But I guess it was just someone
Who looked a lot like, I remember you do
'Cause I thought I heard your voice

In a bar making a choice
But, no, it was just someone
Who sounded a lot like I remember you do

'Cause that's impossible, that's im
That's impossible, that's imposs
That's impossible, that's impossible

'Cause you're in New York but I'm not
You're in Tokyo but I'm not
You're in Nova Scotia but I'm not

Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
I'm not, I'm not, I'm not

I thought I felt your touch
In my car, on my clutch
But I guess it was just someone
Who felt a lot like I remember you do

'Cause that's impossible, that's im
That's impossible, that's imposs
That's impossible, that's impossible

'Cause you're in New York but I'm not
You're in Tokyo but I'm not
You're in Nova Scotia but I'm not

Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
I'm not, I'm not, I'm not

I thought I saw you out on the avenue
But I guess it was just someone
Who looked a lot like I remember you do

I thought I felt your touch
In my car, but no such luck
No, I guess it was just someone
Who felt a lot like I remember you do

'Cause that's impossible, that's im
That's impossible, that's imposs
That's impossible, that's impossible

'Cause you're in New York but I'm not
You're in Tokyo but I'm not
You're in Nova Scotia but I'm not

Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
(Oh, come on, oh, yeah, yeah)

You're everywhere that I'm not
You're everywhere that I'm not
You're everywhere that I'm not
Yeah, you're everywhere that I'm not
