(Lorenzo Partida)
Suffering delirious insomnia
On roads that devour your soul
Heavy flowers
Poisoned in rites of earthly misery
Your spirit dies in exile
Like a lonely animal
He bites humiliated
The arrogance
Swallowing beggar ghosts
By the grey windows
Of coffins with pale faces
Immaculate among the stars
I find you again
To share the universe, Beatriz
Immaculate among the stars
I find you again
To share the universe, Beatriz
Blood fishers
Spilling misfortune
So many tears
At the end of the ocean
Discharged hatred
By the screams of the water
Today you wave goodbye
To the seasons
Summers, winter, spring, fall
Immaculate among the stars
I find you again
To share the universe
Beatriz, Beatriz, Beatriz
