I'm up against the wall
These motherfuckers don't care at all
All they want is to take
Keep piling on the weight until I fucking break Won't ever be satisfied until the powers of the world give up on the power and die Just want to live in peace but there's a hand on my chest
that won't let me breathe Long enough to live, I gave you all that there is to give If I sold my soul to the devil could I live long enough just to die?
Never
Can't be locked down forever
Never
I'm not a product of law

I'm up against the wall
These motherfuckers don't care at all
All they want is to take
Keep piling on the weight until I fucking break
I'm going to fucking break
I'm not a product of law
I was born into a class I didn't choose Set up to take the fall for a man with more money in his hand
I wasn't born in a court but I was sentenced to a life I didn't ask for Hungry and poor, I still want more
