"Pleased To Meet You"

I don't want to be followed by sheep
Don't need the respect of the mentally weak
I have no interest in leading the blind
But walking amongst those people with open minds because I'm -

TUI, as long as I'm still alive
I live to spite you

I can't believe how stupid you must be
To follow everything that you read, hear, and see
You could never walk the path that I walk
You're too afraid of the risk involved because I'm -

TUI, as long as I'm still alive
I live to spite you
Realize that I'm not one of your kind
I'm nothing like you

You shake my hand
Say, "Pleased to meet you"
Look me in the eye
I don't believe you

TUI, as long as I'm still alive
I live to spite you
Realize that I'm not one of your kind
I'm nothing like you

I'm nothing like you
