It's clear that you fear the truth, you live in fantasy
That's not for me
I live my life everyday like it was my last
While you live in the past
Walk through life like anybody owes you shit
You're going to regret it
You've wasted years running in fear
And now its clear

We can't coincide because you and I,
We're not alike
You and I can't coincide

I refuse to be consumed by bitterness and pain
All you know is hate
What you gonna do when it comes back on you this time?
Run and hide
We can't coincide 'cause you and I

We're not alike
You and I can't coincide

You talk behind my back and to my face you tell me lies
Don't even try to justify
You misuse the truth in attempt to vilify
You misuse the truth
You can't deny

Can't coincide

'Cause you and I,
We're not alike
You and I can't coincide
We're not alike,
You and I,
Can't coincide
