Meet me at the crossroads
The edge of all my broken dreams
I feel like I'm something missing
Missing I, missing me

An angel to my left, the devil to my right
It's time that I made a choice
I can only do what I know feels right
It's time that I let go

Experience, experience it all
I found a risk worth taking
Right or wrong
It's my line to cross
Experience, experience it all
I found a life worth living
I want to feel alive
I want to do more than just survive

Swimming in the shallow far
They never let me get too deep
The tide will have to take me under Pull me in, set me free

An angel to my left, the devil to my right
It's time that I made a choice
I can only do what I know feels right
It's time that I let go

Experience, experience it all
I found a risk worth taking
Right or wrong
It's my line to cross
Experience, experience it all
I found a life worth living
I want to feel alive
I want to do more than just survive

A dream is only a dream
A dream is only a dream until you make it real
A dream is only a dream unless it's something you can feel

I was something I can feel
Something I can feel

Experience, experience it all
I found a risk worth taking
Right or wrong
It's my line to cross
Experience, experience it all
I found a life worth living
I want to feel alive
I want to do more than just survive

I want to do more than just survive
Experience, experience it all
