Running in place
Feeling like you're losing your faith
Feeling like you're fading away
Without a voice to break the chain
Don't you get played
Don't you let them hand you you're fate
Don't you know the world is you're stage
So what you got to say

Let me hear you sound off
Let them know how you feel
If the anger inside is real, sound off
Long before the bridges are burned
The powers to be are going to hear your words
Have you been heard
Have you been walking around this world
misunderstood
Have you been heard
You got to take back what you know is yours
Let me hear you sound off

Searching for truth
You know when someone's lying to you
We all know how it feels to be used
Do they take us all for fools
They break they're own rules
The hypocrites are leading us through Do what they say and nod as they do
Or do we have a right to choose
Let me hear you sound off
Let them know how you feel
If the anger inside is real
Long before the bridges are burned
The powers to be are going to hear your words
Have you been heard
Have you been walking around this world
misunderstood
Have you been heard
You got to take back what you know is yours
Let me hear you sound off

I hope you get the message loud and clear

We will never disappear
We will ask the questions you fear
Its the only thing you'll hear

Sound off
Let them know how you feel
If the anger inside is real
Long before the bridges are burned
The powers to be are going to hear your words
Have you been heard
Have you been walking around this world
misunderstood
Have you been heard
You got to take back what you know is yours
Let me hear you sound off
