Checking out so soon
How long you been planning this
Is it something that I missed
I would've thought that I was breaking through to you
Did you run out of room
You said that you would take the risk
And now you can't handle it
You took what you can get and now you're through

I can tell by the look on your face
That it's time for you to make an escape
It's my mistake,
It's my mistake I never listen when you say

Don't ever get too close
Too close, too close to me
You don't wanna get too close
Too close, too close to me
Don't ever get too close
Too close, too close to me
I had to find out
Find out for myself

I always knew I'd be the one to take the hit
But I guess I just can't resist
All the mystery surrounding you
I'm so confused
There are just too many twists
I'll never get away from it
I should've known that you were too good to be true

I can tell by the look on your face
That it's time for you to make an escape
It's my mistake,
It's my mistake I never listen when you say

Don't ever get too close
Too close, too close to me
You don't wanna get too close
Too close, too close to me
Don't ever get too close

Too close, too close to me
I had to find out
Find out for myself

Don't ever get too close
Too close, too close to me
You don't wanna get too close
Too close, too close to me
Don't ever get too close
Too close, too close to me
I had to find out
Find out for myself

Why do you keep me at a distance
Why are you always so resistant
Don't wanna wonder any longer
Wonder when you'd say

Don't ever get too close
You don't wanna get too close
I had to find out

Don't ever get too close
You don't wanna get too close
I had to find out
