Don't think we ever really got it right,
Both you and I have always kept it bottled up inside,
Can you show me what it feels like,
To give yourself away,
(Why can't I hold on?)
There's nobody around
Who brings me up when I'm down
Like you do,

(Why can't I hold on?)
When you can't hear a sound,
There's silence around you too,

Who's going home with you tonight?
Was it real, or am I part of your collection
Have you crossed the line?,
Who's going home with you tonight,
Oh I feel is you're an open invitation,
Is this how we say goodbye?

Keeping secret's somewhere down below,
I wish you had the heart to tell me that you sold your soul,
So many things you couldn't let me know
You had to run away,
(Why can't I hold on?)

There's nothing around
Who picks me up when I'm down like you do,
(Why can't I hold on?)
When you can't hear a sound,
There's silence around you too,

Who's going home with you tonight?
Was it real, or am I part of your collection,
Have you crossed the line?,
Who's going home with you tonight,
Oh I feel is you're an open invitation,
Is this how we say goodbye?

Who's going home with you tonight?,
Goodbye,

Who's going home with you tonight?,

Can you tell me what is wrong, and what is right
Who's going home with you tonight?,

Why can't I hold on to you?
Why can't I hold on to you,
Why can't I hold on to you?

It's getting harder to sit here alone
I've been waiting, I've been waiting, and you still ain't home,
I have never ever felt so low,
I've been thinking, I've been thinking, oh where did you go?

Who's going home with you tonight?
Was it real, or am I part of your collection?
Have you crossed the line?,
Who's going home with you tonight?,
Oh I feel is your an open invitation,
Is this how we say goodbye?

Who's going home with you tonight?,
Goodbye,
Who's going home with you tonight?,
Can you tell me what is wrong and what is right?,
Who's going home with you tonight?
