Gruesome display of victims
Of the age of extermination
Testimonies of eyewitnesses
Skeletonized bodies

Get to know the truth
Believe in bloody totalitarianism -
- Sickness of the times
In which we are to live

Feel the taste of T.N.T. -
- A synonym of power
Of demented kings, of this world

Hundreds of thousands suffering
Unjust deaths
Bursting arteries of bodies burnt alive
The scream is almost heard
A groan of tormented souls
Heading for nowhere
Avoiding their assassins

A gruesome display

A gruesome display
There are heads hanging on the walls
The bones crunch under your feet
Great is the force of memory
Punishing the guilty for their deeds
Posthumously vindicating
(Punishing for deeds)

Touch the truth
Open the hidden tombs for the world
Open your eyes to the past

Touch the truth
