False looks
Every more calculated
Lie is the point of reference

Accomplishment through tricks
Is always justified
We keep on looking for different ways
To harm each other

Tools of mutral harm
Unconscious damage
The only stimulus to act
Is money and vision of power

Endlessly absorbed
In the obsession of possession
Further and further we blunder
Into the alley, drawn asunder

Lies, frauds
False, tricks
We all sink
In our own shin
