hey... (hey)
hmmm na na na

if i was a flight you would be my destination i'm coming to you i don't need an invitation if you were a doctor then i would be your patient teach me how to love i need a cardio-operation i would be your getaway if you would be the driver i'll get in the car and commit the perfect crime i could steal your heart you could still mine and if we get caught then baby i'll do all the time but i don't even know,

your name
i've never even seen,
your face
girl i can't wait to meet ya
i can't wait to meet ya, someday if i was a mirror baby you'd be the reflection watch you all the time you're the vision of perfection i would be the answer you would be the question show you how it's done cos baby i don't need directions never get enough i'll develop a condition i can't leave your side girl you know you're my addiction so if there is a cure baby i don't won't to find it and i won't go to rehab you got me in whining

your name
i can't wait to meet ya, someday (someday)

your name

(girl when you're closing your eyes
baby when you're sleeping at night
me and you
me and you, yeah)
yeah
