I couldn't see through the stormy weather
Couldn't feel the cold on my fingertips at all
Looking at me, you think I have it together
But my heart is frozen all alone

And then you found me
Girl, when you're around me
You show me the world through your eyes
You changed it all and now I think I'm falling
How could I miss all the signs

Girl I couldn't see, love in front of me
When I couldn't feel, I didn't know just what was real
When I couldn't hear, you're the music to my ears
Girl I was running from love
You made me come to my senses
(You made me) Come to my senses [x6]

What I'm trying to say is that I didn't want to change before
I didn't know that my heart was upside down
I can never love until I met you
Good thing you came and you flipped my world back around

And then you found me
Girl, when you're around me
You show me the world through your eyes

You changed it all and now I think I'm falling
How could I miss all the signs

Girl I couldn't see, love in front of me
When I couldn't feel, I didn't know just what was real
When I couldn't hear, you're the music to my ears
Girl I was running from love
You made me come to my senses
(You made me) Come to my senses [x6]

There was so many things that I never felt
So many times when I needed you
You brought me to my senses

I'm not running from love anymore

[x2:]

Girl I couldn't see, love in front of me

When I couldn't feel, I didn't know just what was real

When I couldn't hear, you're the music to my ears

Girl I was running from love

You made me come to my senses

(You made me) Come to my senses [x6]
